MEMORANDUM FOR ARNG Honor Guard Program

SUBJECT: Guidance for Allotted Training Dollars

1. References:

a. DFAS-IN Regulation 37-1, 25 September 2000, Army Accounting and Fund Control.

b. DFAS-IN Manual 37-100-, the Army Management Structure.

c. DoD 7000.14R, Volume 14, Administrative Control of Funds and Anti-Deficiency Act Violations.

2. Purpose: This memorandum provides guidance on the use of funding for Soldiers in a training status.

3. Policy: Each state was provided with a set amount for training in the proposed NGB FY07 funding guidance for the Honor Guard. Once executed no further funding will be available for training and placing Soldiers in a training status will not be authorized. However, funding for the performance of funerals will not be effected by this policy and the Soldiers will be placed in a like IDT status to perform funerals only.

4. The ARNG Honor Guard Coordinator will be responsible for ensuring that this policy is adhered to and the ration of training days is kept at 1 to 5 or 20% of the overall cost of military honors.
