

Currently the Director of Information Management for the Nevada Army National Guard, LTC Hall enlisted in the Army in 1988. Prior to commissioning, he served in the duty positions of rifleman, grenadier, saw gunner, RTO, team leader, squad leader and C & E Officer. LTC Hall commissioned through the University of Nevada, Reno ROTC program where he earned a Bachelor Degree in Political Science in December 2000 and commissioned into the Ordnance Corps. Upon commissioning he reentered into active duty and served as a Platoon Leader, Shop Officer, and Support Operations Maintenance Officer with the 26th Forward Support Battalion, 3rd ID, Fort Stewart, GA. LTC rejoined the Nevada Army National Guard in December 2003 upon returning from Operation Iraqi Freedom and has served as 422 ESB Training Officer, 422 ESB S4, HHD, 422 Company Commander, 321st Signal Company Commander, 422 ESB Assistant S3, Nevada Recruiting and Retention Commander, 757th CSSB XO, G1 Officer Personnel Manager and as the G6, Director of Information Management.

LTC Hall served in Operation Desert Storm and Operation Iraqi Freedom. He is a graduate of Airborne School, Air Assault School, Ranger School, PLDC, BNCO, Malaysian Survival School, Ordnance Officer Basic Course, the Reserve Component Signal Officer Advance Course, Combined Arms Exercise, Support Operations Course, Human Resource Management Qualification Course, CGSC and completed his Masters of Business Administration 2006.

LTC Hall and his wife, Heather have one son Isaiah (6) and live in Reno.