

VA for Vets is a gateway assisting veterans get jobs in the VA. The VA's goal is to have 40% of its employees nationwide be made up of veterans. We are currently at about 32%, so there is a lot of hiring expected to happen. This site can help you write a sterling resume, as well as provide you with the ability to talk to a live person to get feedback and other job assistance.

This site also posts jobs. There are counselors available to help with job search and reintegration and other job related services. If you are interested in a career with the VA, check it out, surf around and see everything it has to offer.

<http://vaforvets.va.gov/Pages>